REPORTS OF THE JUDICIAL COMMISSION TO PARLIAMENT

NSW Liberal & Nationals Members of Parliament will have a conscience vote when the two reports tabled from the Conduct Division of the Judicial Commission into Magistrate Brian Maloney and Magistrate Jennifer Betts are considered by Parliament, NSW Premier Barry O'Farrell and Deputy Premier Andrew Stoner said today.

As is tradition in these matters, Members of Parliament from the NSW Liberal & Nationals will be able to form their own views based on the reports, and any address to Parliament by the Magistrates, and vote accordingly.
