PREMIER WELCOMES DPP APPEAL

NSW Premier Barry O'Farrell today welcomed the announcement from the independent DPP to appeal the decision to grant bail to the man accused of torching a police vehicle.

"This decision will be welcomed by NSW Police and the community," Mr O'Farrell said.

"I'm pleased the DPP has decided to appeal a decision that represented a kick in the guts to our hardworking police," he said.

"Following this morning's police raids, outlaw motorcycle gangs should now understand the State's law enforcement bodies are coming after them."
